MARIJUANA ARRESTS

Three persons were arrested in the Carmel Plaza parking lot Monday evening for the possession and possession for sale of marijuana.

Arrested were two San Jose adults and a Carmel juvenile. After information was received by the police that the San Jose man and woman were selling marijuana, arrangements were made for apprehension. Involved in the arrest were three Carmel officers, a Pacific Grove policeman and a District Attorney investigator.

Lieutenant Ed Fisher said "The arrest was a result of a cooperative effort of all the Peninsula agencies." He went on to say, "We are trying to stay on top of it (illegal marijuana use) as much as we can."

Lt. Fisher pointed out an interesting fact regarding legalized use of marijuana. He said that our country is a subscriber to a World Health Organization treaty with 70 countries to make the sale, possession, and cultivation of marijuana illegal.

Carmel Police Captain William Ellis recalled that during the year of 1966-67, the U. S. Bureau of Customs confiscated 25,000 pounds of marijuana being transported across the border. Already during the last four months 20,000 pounds have been confiscated.

Approximately a dozen arrests involving marijuana have been made in Carmel during the past two months.

Officers Attend Narcotic Course

The Federal Bureau of Narcotics invited four men from the Carmel Police Dept. to attend a two weeks intensive course on the problems of narcotics and law enforcement November 11th thru the 17th.

Captain Wm. Ellis, Lt. Bob Fisher, Sgt. Del Wermuth and officer Ed Fisher were chosen to attend the course which has given Chief Clyde Klummann's force a greater ability to cope with the growing magnitude and complexity of this problem. Enforcement men from the United States and eight foreign countries were in attendance.

This meant a doubling up of responsibilities for the Chief and his men while the four were attending school but the work schedule is back to normal now and the crack down has started.

A-2 ZONE FOR SUNSET

"Sunset Center was not to be a cultural center, but a municipal civic and cultural center." Barbara Norberg.

"Where do the children go to play if it (Sunset North Playground) is black-topped?" Commander Felton, boy scout master.

"When I walked by Sunset playground I found not a playground there, but a dust bowl." Les Laky.

"You are not considering the surrounding properties, and I request you do consider it." Robert Downs.

"It is difficult to get recreational land back once it is gone." Stan Spaw.

"We are neglecting our children." James McDruy.

"I'm against the restaurant." Tom Turner.

"Put the city officials in Sunset." Wallace Doolittle.

"We (Cultural Commission) spent many hours trying to do what the public wanted us to do." Captain Falge.

"People who talk and cry about it don't even come down to visit Sunset." Cole Weston.

"If I came here for the first time tonight, I would think all the yardage of work done on it was done behind the door and in the dark." James Gilman.

Even though the voices in objection to rezoning Sunset into an A-2 District outnumbered those in favor 5-1, the Carmel City Councilman voted to consider the ordinance first reading. A second reading and another public hearing will be scheduled at a later date.

Other action of the council included public hearings on an ordinance establishing minimum lot sizes for certain Carmel properties, and an ordinance adopting the Planning and Zoning Code revisions. The code was changed to restrict liquor establishments to one per block, and to provide for appeals of decisions of the Planning Commission, and to lump all items dealing with signs under one heading. City Clerk Hugh Bayless was commended for preparing such a complete and functional revision.

Under orders in Council, the city officials agreed to temporarily remove a directional sign at Ocean and Carpenter; send a letter indicating Carmel's approval of Seaside's annexation of certain housing areas of Fort Ord, and make final payment on the construction of the Civic Center. The Councilmen all agreed that they should go on record against the consolidation of Monterey County Judicial District.

Weston Returns Home With Vital Information

Sunset Manager Cole Weston returned to Carmel Friday from a week-long tour of the Monroe, Louisiana Civic Center. With him, he brought information he feels will help in operating a more efficient Sunset Center.

Weston said, "I was amazed at the size and scope of the Civic Center and commend Monroe on a tremendous effort."

"I don't feel it had a great deal which concerned our Sunset Center," Weston said, "But I CAN relate to some of the techniques used there."

Weston stated he was advised how to negotiate an effective contract, and how to "Scale a House." Scaling a house is merely to price seats according to their desirability. He mentioned that while touring the Civic Center Theatre he learned of certain stage equipment

"The year that is drawing toward its close has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they came, others have been added. . . . They are . . . gracious gifts. . . . It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and one voice by the whole American people."

"Lth" Birthday Party

The party to celebrate Mrs. W. E. van Loben Sels' "Lth" birthday at the Warehouse on Cannery Row Sunday evening was a real blast, punctuated by firecrackers, red flares and red smoke as she was carried in. Planned and put on by Mr. and Mrs. August Armanasco, Nancy O'Gara, Mrs. Stafford Hughes and Mr. van Loben Sels, it began with a large group meeting the train from San Francisco on which Jim van Loben Sels had reserved an entire car for more of Jean's friends, from that area.

There was dancing to the nostalgic music of the "20's" played by the Warehouse band, as Jean and Bud greeted the some 200 guests who included Virginia and Robert Stanton, the Hans von Richters, the Frank Ringlands, the Ansel Adams, the Allen Griffins, and ever so many more. The playing of "My Little Margy" almost had Marjorie Lloyd former Pine Cone editor, in tears. Marjorie and Genevieve Armanasco made the huge colored paper flowers which decorated the long buffet tables.

Probably the climax of the evening (there were several) was when a large paper birthday cake was placed on the bandstand, every one stopped dancing, the strains of "Happy Birthday" were sung, and up popped Jean, her sequined dress sparkling in the spotlight. Bud van Loben Sels drank a toast to his wife from her slipper. Then she was lifted into a swing which was hanging from the ceiling. Like a brave trouper, she looked as though she were really enjoying swinging through the air.

Another high point to the evening was when the enormous birthday cake, baked and decorated for Mrs. van Loben Sels by Genevieve Armanasco was brought in. The cake had been put together from four large sections which it took her three days to make.

A tremendous party, it lived up to its promise in Gus Ariola's cleverly designed invitations.

Junior League

Friends of Photography

Horan, Mrs. Henry Brown, Mrs. Derek Rayne, Mrs. Robert Ahrens, Miss Sophie Harp, Mrs. Parker Hall, Miss Mette "Tiz" Frost, and Mrs. McCarthy Glass will also come in on certain days.

Mikado Benefit

Everybody seemed to know everybody else as an audience of 150, members of the Soroptimists Club of Monterey Peninsula and their guests, filled the Circle Theatre with laughter and applause during Friday night's performance of "The Mikado."

The hospitality chairman, Mrs. Aage Knudsen of Carmel was responsible for the unique delicacies that were served at the Soroptimists benefit. Mrs. R. L. Voris of Monterey was chairman. She and Mr. Voris hosted one of the numerous dinner parties, at the nearby La Playa Hotel, preceding the performance.

Carmel Soroptimists who with their guests joined in the fun at the Circle Theatre included: Mesdames James Bannerman, Martin Behrman, Leon Chamberlain; George Conn, and Earl Glennon. Also, Mesdames Murray Marshall, Clayton Neill, Harold Nielsen, Kenneth Shook, Larry Sweeney, Gladys Johnston and Miss Dorothy Wright. From Feb-

Carmel Art Modes

By Louise Cook

When one sees the fragile beauty of Rosemary Miner it is difficult to picture her as the creator of the powerful seascapes for which she has become so well known.

In a home perched above the ocean, where she is intimately aware of the source of her inspiration, she lives with her husband, son and two lady Siamese cats. Music is another source of inspiration for her and she credits Debussy, Ravel and Sibelius with helping her to attain the dynamic quality found in her paintings. Her canvases of moonlit seas and skies are particular favorites and really evoke the strains of Debussy's Claire de Lune for the viewer. In Carmel, Zantman Art Galleries are the exclusive agents for Mrs. Miner's paintings.

Residing in Orgeval France he is presently working on books of Egypt and Ghana.

The photographs in this exhibit are from the collection of the George Eastman House, Rochester, N. Y. and Ansel Adams, Carmel.

The exhibit will be on view through December 31, 1967. New winter gallery hours are daily from 1 to 4 (closed Mondays.)

More Helpful Hints From PG&E:

Five handy tips on household safety.

A Little Dirt or Lint

can cause trouble. So make sure that burners and controls on your gas furnace, wall or floor heater are clean at all times. And clean or replace dirty furnace filters periodically.

Get Rid Of

rusted or loose fitting vent and flue pipes. Have them checked annually. And if you suspect a gas leak, CALL PG&E IMMEDIATELY.

Once A Year

have your gas appliances thoroughly checked by your furnace man or plumber. While he's there he should make sure safety pilots are operating properly, air openings on burners are clean and burners set for a blue flame.

Remember

to keep all stairs and walkways safely lighted. Always keep a supply of light bulbs and fuses on hand — and have flashlight handy for replacing them.

It's Up To You

to practice good home safety habits. Don't place furniture or draperies over floor furnaces. Don't let gas accumulate before lighting a burner manually. And always make sure the burners on your range are off completely when not in use.

PG&E Is Ready To Help

If you call for a PG&E service man to check out any gas leak or inoperative gas appliance, ask him to show you where your gas pilots are located and how to go about relighting them. If repairs or parts are ever required for an appliance, call an appliance or furnace service man or your plumber.

ADVERTISE
IN THE PINE CONE
IT IS GOOD BUSINESS

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

The periodical Scholarly Books in America reports that the word "finalize" is now old hat and completely out. We can all hope that this dictum will rapidly spread to the farthest corners of the land and we shall no longer be forced to hear language-idiot declare they are finalizing either a project or a plan. May the day come soon!

Not often do we say that any certain book should be read by everyone, but we are much tempted by YOUNG PEOPLE AND DRIVING by Ken Purdy. Did you know that the average fatal automobile accident occurs in 7/10ths of a second? In that tiny space of time a car is wrecked and a person killed, and it happens every year about 50,000 times. More persons have been killed in car accidents than in all the wars we have fought since 1775. This book tells you how to drive and while doing so it will give you the shakes to think that for all these years you have been doing it without really knowing how. Stirling Moss wrote the introduction and very well, too.

MASTS TO SPEAR THE STARS by Stephen Longstreet is a book which seems extra special to this librarian. It is a novel about the voyage of the first clipper ship on the China run. It is exciting, well written, and will hold your interest from the first page to the last. The title is a tongue twister when pronounced aloud, so write it instead.

A new book entitled THE JEWISH WEDDING BOOK was written by the wife and daughter of a prominent rabbi. It explains not only the various customs which surround the Jewish wedding but it goes into the historical backgrounds which led to these customs. It takes into account the three major divisions of the Jewish church, Reform, Orthodox, and Conservative. Looking over this book it would seem that almost every emergency or situation had been provided for, including the cancellation of the wedding because the groom had been called into military service. There is even a helpful "Guide for Guests". A valuable small book is this one.

Almost a hundred years ago a young man named Elisha Douglas Perkins made the overland trip from Ohio to California. His diary has recently been published by the press of the University of Kentucky. It is called GOLD RUSH DIARY. Young Perkins wrote his diary in pencil as he lived the events along the trail and it gives the finished account an immediacy and a clarity which serves to take the reader along with him. There are maps and drawings.

SEX AND SOCIETY IN SWEDEN is the title of a book by Birgitta Linner. The book is divided into two parts, the first of which deals with the social implications of Sweden's sexual democracy, namely welfare programs and social and sexual customs. The second section has to do with sex education of children, teen agers and adults. This section contains actual lessons in sex for children of all ages, and in each case the age range is clearly stated. The Swedish attitude toward sex is honest and open, a situation devoutly to be decided in our own country.

Finally, let us mention briefly THE WORLD, OF JIMMY BRESLIN which is a collection of articles by this popular writer on the New York Herald Tribune. Breslin is said to own New York, but this is not what gives him his immense following. It is the quality of his writing and his preception. He has received many journalism awards. Move into his world with this book. Ruth Galvin Thornburg Chief Librarian

Valley Mouth Under Construction

A few years ago the only commercial structures erected on the land at the mouth of the Carmel Valley were: a service station, Carmel Rancho Shopping Center and an apartment complex.

During the past year another service station has been added, a huge motel, and, under construction, space for a super market.

Before the end of next year, there will be still another motel and two additional shopping centers, with possible construction beginning on another apartment complex.

So, by the end of 1968 the mouth of the Valley will be the scene of: three shopping centers, two super markets, two service stations, two motels, and, possibly, two apartment complexes.

This expansion has been carefully considered by the Monterey County Planning Commission with no intention of extending commercial tentacles further than the land already designated for commercial activities.

Safeway Moves

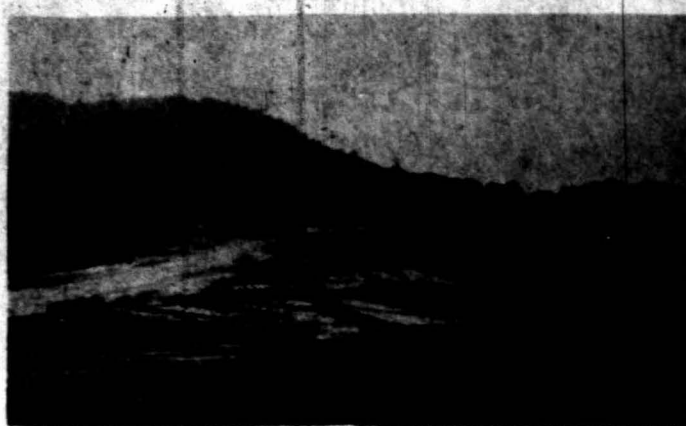

The Safeway store will move out of its present "inadequate" space in the Carmel Rancho Shopping Center into its new 30,260 square foot store being constructed across the boulevard. According to President of Dolphin Construction Company, the new Safeway store will be completed in the next two weeks, and Safeway plans to be into the store before year's end. The present store square footage is 15,906.

Shopping Center

Just to the south of the new Safeway, underground work is being accomplished to make way for an annex to the Carmel Rancho Shopping Center. Lowe, also contractor for this project, told the Pine Cone that "we expect to begin construction on the Shopping Center in about December." According to him, some leases have already been let; a pharmacy, Mediterranean Market, a struction of a Ramada Inn in architecture to resemble that of Del Monte Center in barber shop, United Bank of California, a travel agency and a restaurant. George A. Raad is the architect for the center which will resemble the design of the new Safeway store.

Another Shopping Center

According to Donald Goodhue of Hall-Goodhue architectural firm on Cannery Row, the earth work seen south of the Holiday Inn on Rio Road represents phase I of a multi-phase plan to erect a large, enclosed shopping mall. The enclosed mall will cover a total of 60,000 square feet. Another Safeway store will lease 30,000 of the total square footage.

Goodhue says that the mall, the first enclosed one on the Peninsula, should be open to the public in early summer of 1968. Plans for the center began two years ago as a normal "open-air" shopping center, but after careful investigation of prevailing trends, the Carmel Properties Company found it more feasible to construct an enclosed mall. Inside there will be exhibit space for artists, a fountain, and a locally designed and executed sculpture. The entire center will be elevated three feet on a landscaped podium.

Ramada Inn Plans

Directly across from where the enclosed shopping center is to be constructed, final plans call for the con-

Monterey, rather than the usual Colonial motif.

Carmel Logo

Although plans have not been completed for Carmel Logo it appears that this large apartment complex will definitely be constructed somewhere in the vicinity of the Carmel River and Rio Road.

In summation, the mouth of the Carmel Valley has quite a future outlined for itself.

WHAT'S DOING?

In any given day a Telephone Repairman might help a lady whose phone cord was melted by her electric iron; fix a phone that was making "funny little noises" and replace a frayed wire. And you know, many people are surprised to find this service comes at no extra charge!

So if your phone ever goes out of order you might have to use the phone next door to call Repair Service. You'll find the number listed in the front pages of your phone book. We'll see that your phone is fixed as soon as possible.

From all of us here at Pacific Telephone on the Monterey Peninsula—best wishes to all of you for a pleasant Thanksgiving Day.

When you pick up your telephone to make a long distance call, it's entirely possible that your voice will be riding along the same communications trail as your favorite TV hero and his cowpony.

Your traveling companions might also include a teletyped report of a company's daily production, bits of fragmented information that only a computer can understand, or even the vital rhythms of a human heartbeat—and each without interfering with the other.

Yes, today's nationwide telephone system carries more than just telephone calls. The variety of communications traveling through telephone cable or radio wave, might even astound Alexander Graham Bell.

I.P.S.S. Inter-Club Contest

A second consecutive week of miserable surf at Carmel Beach forced the Inter-Peninsula Surfing Society to move its first Inter-Club Contest to South Moss Beach on the 17-mile Drive, Saturday, November 11. The surf was not ideal, with strong winds blowing and generally rather rough seas. However, "Moss" did have big waves to offer. The shorebreak ranged from 2-4 feet and the outside waves were cresting at 9 feet.

Surfing on his own home grounds, I. P. S. S. Pacific Grove member, Bobby Mothershead completely dominated the contest. The blonde-haired "goofy-foot" riding the outside break, awed the spectators and fellow competitors alike with his "hotdogging" style that is usually associated with surf of the 2-4 feet category. Mothershead took home both the Men's Division and Overall Champion trophies. He was followed by second, third place finishers in the Men's Division; Gill Harrington, Mel Grimes, and Lance Barstad, respectively.

Dave Hunter's victory in the Junior Men's Division has been labeled an upset by many. The Carmel High Senior surpassed the performances of Bill Smith and Brad Stewart, who placed second and third respectively.

The club is very satisfied with the ease with which the contest progressed and is now looking forward to the next Inter-Club Contest which hopefully will be held at Carmel Beach in mid-January.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

We hope you will have plenty of turkey left from that Thanksgiving feast to supply at least one beautiful buffet dish. This meal-in-a-dish dining is such a simple trick because in minutes you can serve delicious casseroles. These are the mainstay of party and buffet menus. They require no carving; guests can serve themselves and the food can usually be eaten with only a fork. Stored in the freezer, they are wonderful to have on hand for spur-of-the-moment entertaining when something delectable and easy is in order with little time to prepare it.

Let's look into an old Southern cookbook called "Housekeeping in Old Virginia" published in 1879. The directions are somewhat vague but the tasting is mighty good. This however refutes our first statement that we're now going to talk turkey casseroles (which we will hereafter) but first we'll make a scrumptious bonus old-fashioned,

Virginia Turkey Salad

Remove skin and fat from leftover roasted turkey. Cut it into medium-sized cubes. Mince 4 slices lean ham, add to 4 cups cubed turkey. Add 2 cups chopped celery, 4 apples, pared and cubed, 2 cucumber pickles, chopped. Prepare a rich dressing of 4 tbsps. butter, salt and white pepper, mustard and vinegar to taste; mix all this into the yolks of 4 hard cooked eggs mashed with a little thick cream. Celery seed, cress and one large mango peeled and chopped fine add extra Southern glamour. Sieve the hard-cooked egg whites, sprinkle over all and color with paprika and minced parsley. Serve with hot buttered cornsticks, beaten biscuits (these come packaged nowadays) or rolls made from a mix. Your best homemade preserves or jelly is all, besides some wine and hot coffee, that is necessary for a delightful fireside supper. Amount given serves 8 generously. Do not freeze salad.

Fabulous Turkey and Mushrooms

Six cups cubed cooked turkey broth made from bones, celery, onions, salt and pepper; 1/2 cup butter; 18 small boiled onions (the kind called pearl onions); 2 garlic cloves, finely minced; 1 lb. fresh mushrooms, quartered; 4 tbsps. flour or cornstarch; salt and pepper; chopped parsley; grapes.

Brown the turkey and mushrooms lightly in butter and put into casserole. In same skillet saute onions and garlic, adding a little more butter if necessary and arrange over turkey and mushrooms. Make a gravy with broth and flour and season to taste. Pour over all, cover and bake until well heated through, then add seedless grapes which stir into the casserole. Serve over rice or broad noodles with a green salad and coconut macaroons for a finger dessert. Casserole serves 12.

You can combine creamed cooked turkey cubes with cooked frozen peas, toasted slivered almonds and cooked spaghetti with canned or sauteed fresh mushrooms and bake in large casserole. When piping hot and golden brown add grated Parmesan cheese and run this under the broiler briefly. Known by gourmets as Turkey Tetrazzini, it is the queen of party dishes. Assorted little cakes with fresh pineapple soaked in rum or sherry are worthy accompaniments.

Few Beatniks

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll M. McKee of the Pine Inn just recently returned from a driving trip through Nevada, Oklahoma, Nebraska with the final destination his hometown, Coffeyville, Kansas.

Mr. Carroll said he is very happy to be back in Carmel but that fall is one time of the year when those states are beautiful. When asked if he noticed any difference in those areas from Carmel he said that most of the towns he visited were more of a rural nature. The community activities usually revolve around the churches.

Also, he didn't see any beatniks after leaving Reno. He said the community attitude is different than Carmel's toward beatniks. For example, the policy in Duncan, Oklahoma is for the police chief to advise any beatnik that he must have a haircut to stay there. Beatnik couples are told that they must marry or leave town.

REPORTS FROM RLS

By Chandler Meloy

Happy Thanksgiving with Soccer and Debate

Students and faculty will enjoy a six day holiday to celebrate two recent team victories, one that ended the sports season, and one that ended the 1967 debate season.

The Woodside soccer game, held last Saturday, was another cliff hanger. The team had only one major hurdle to pass for a most exciting season... the Woodside-R.L.S. perpetual trophy. Both teams played superb defense, controlling the front line time after time, with Woodside breaking the ice first on a corner kick by John O'Grady in the third quarter. Scott Bullen came through with a beautiful front shot late in the fourth period to tie the game. Ending in a tie, the trophy went to R.L.S. as they had scored the most goals in two games. A great season for Coach Dave Martula and "Juicy" Valerio.

The other Saturday event was a debate tournament held at R.L.S. for the Pacific Forensic League... First place went to R.L.S. Winners in the varsity division were Bill Kondrat and Jack Booth over Red Howard and Lonnie Foy on a split decision. Also split, the Junior Varsity went to R.L.S.

with Jim Doyle and Jeff Kline defeating Ed Scott and Steve Simmons.

The tournament, run by the students with adult supervision, went very smoothly and started right on time. Chairman Bruce Decker is to be commended for his great efforts along with the Freshman Class who provided timers, and Barry Nathan and Gary Bechtel who served as Division chairmen. Special thanks to Jim Russell, Grant Lloyd, John Riley, Art Lara, Tom Gardner and student body President, Claude Wynn.

And a Happy Thanksgiving, with grateful thanks, to all the judges who spent their Saturday with us even with the "Big Game" being played.

THOMAS JEFFERSON His Religious Views

"Had the doctrines of Jesus been preached always as pure as they came from his lips, the whole civilized world would now have been Christian. I rejoice that in this blessed country of free inquiry and belief, which has surrendered its conscience to neither kings nor priests, the genuine doctrine of only one God is reviving, and I trust that there is not a young man now living in the United States who will not die a Unitarian."

Unitarianism, insisting upon individual freedom of belief and the use of reason in religion, is today attracting more members than ever before.

Here is a religion, unclouded by creed and dogma, that seeks answers to man's problems in the living now. With Jefferson, it is "against every form of tyranny over the mind of man," be it political, social or religious.

THANKSGIVING THOUGHTS

We completely overlooked our November 1 Anniversary Date this year and to our surprise (yes, we were pleased, too) several people commented that they noticed we didn't run our usual ad to take note of the fact. Each year since we began our Carmel real estate business we have repeated the first ad we ran—and here it is:

"CLEAN THE CUSPIDORS"

In my first real estate office job (I was 14) I copied documents, filed things, and weekly polished the three brass cuspidors. I don't know that this experience was valuable as far as real estate goes, but I can still remember what my boss said in assigning me the latter job: "There's only one way to run a real estate office: everything has to be CLEAN!" An old-fashioned idea to which we still cling. In opening our office we promise our clients that the properties we list and offer for sale have "clean" financing—mortgages from stable, known lenders which are safe to assume; that our properties will be fairly priced for today's market; that all facts regarding them will be available to our buyers. If you want to make an investment, or if your home is available, or if you want to buy property, we promise you old-fashioned personal attention to your requirements.

Looking back over the years, we see no reason to change a word. High on our list of things for which we are grateful this Thanksgiving season is YOU. I know my associates join me in saying to our wonderful clients—Thank You!—We will continue our best efforts in your behalf.

HAWAII AT HOME. It is unnecessary to travel two thousand miles to enjoy the exotic beauty of Hawaii. Just walk three blocks south of Ocean Ave., and there create your own Island retreat by use of tropical plants in the large enclosed lanai and on the spacious secluded patio in the dappled shade of a handsome oak tree.

Of course, there is a big living room with a beamed ceiling and Swedish fireplace, a formal dining room, kitchen as modern as tomorrow, two oversize bedrooms each with bath, and attached double garage. As an extra bonus, two more rooms with bath and outside entrance, perfect as teen-agers' "pad," artist's studio, privacy for visiting relatives or a source of some welcome "pin money". FIRM price, $42,500, and no telephone information, please. Call for appointment. This is a BARGAIN.

ESTABLISHED INCOME

PENDING YOUR MOVE TO CARMEL. Not quite ready to retire but want to buy before prices go higher? This close-in, beautifully remodeled three-bedroom older Carmel home, leased at $175 until December 1968, together with quaint three-room guest cottage rented for $100 per month, constitutes a rare opportunity for the "future Carmelite" who might use the Guest House as a weekend retreat until ready to retire and occupy the main house. (Then supplement his income by renting the guest house which has a real kitchen). $45,000 with appreciation potential practically guaranteed by condition and location. Again, no telephone information, please. Call for appointment.

WHERE DOES CARMEL BEGIN AND END? Certainly not at the city limits. The wonderful tenants from the East who occupy this ultra-modern, delightful three-bedroom home get their mail in Carmel and incidentally pay $300 per month for the privilege of enjoying occupancy of this choice home) regard themselves as confirmed Carmelites. As proof of this they have purchased a somewhat smaller home and will vacate Dec. 1.

This is your chance to buy one of the most desirable, almost new homes in Carmel Riviera, with three bedrooms, dining room, modern kitchen, living room with picture windows that take advantage of a sweeping ocean view, and a back-drop of mighty mountains. Modern throughout, luscious wall-to-wall carpeting, custom-made draperies, crystal chandelier, marble trimmed fireplace... everything for comfort, convenience and dignified living. Owner will consider all reasonable offers (we suggest $59,500) and will carry loan at 6 1/2% for buyer who makes 20% down payment and has good credit rating. What more could one ask?
